

The Local Scene Ltd (aka Bournemouth Scene)

Privacy Policy

At The Local Scene, we want to make sure our website www.bournemouthscene.co.uk is one that we would want to visit. We have made sure that our website does not collect unnecessary personal information about you and then spread it all over the internet. Our website is free to use and does not require you to hand over any identifiable personal information of any kind.

We do, however, use a few tools that help us get an idea of who comes to our website (See Google Analytics) and to manage our mailing lists (See Mailing Lists). To help reassure you that your information is in good hands, we have written this Privacy Policy that outlines exactly what information we carry and what we do with it.

We use Google Analytics

When someone visits www.bournemouthscene.co.uk we use Google Analytics to collect standard internet log information and details of visitor behaviour patterns. We do this to find out things like the number of visitors to the various parts of the site, which is useful to help us making the Bournemouth Scene website better. This information, gathered by Google Analytics, is processed in a way which does not identify anyone. We do not make, and do not allow Google to make, any attempt to find out the identities of those visiting our website.

We don't use Cookies

We do not use cookies at www.bournemouthscene.co.uk. This may change in the future (no plans as of yet, but you can never say never) and if that time comes then we will ensure you have the option to disable cookies when browsing.

We have links to other Websites

Our web site contains links to information on other websites (on our Map and in our Blog). We do not control these websites (one website is quite enough, thank you) and we cannot be responsible for the protection and privacy of any information that you provide while visiting those sites. Those sites are not governed by this Privacy Policy, and if you have questions about how a site uses your information, you'll need to check that site's privacy statement.

We have a Mailing List

We have a mailing list to stay in touch with people who want to know more about Bournemouth Scene shenanigans and to find out what's going on in Bournemouth, generally. We collect the personal information (name and email only) of those who have signed up to that mailing list via www.bournemouthscene.co.uk/map. We promise that we won't fill your inbox with information you don't want or need (because who's got time to read/write spammy emails) and we promise to never rent or trade your email with any other organisations.

We use MailChimp to deliver our newsletters. We gather statistics around email opening and clicks that helps us monitor and improve the emails we send. For more information on how MailChimp does this, please see MailChimp's privacy notice.

You can unsubscribe to general mailings at any time of the day or night by clicking the unsubscribe link at the bottom of any of our emails or by emailing us at info@bournemouthscene.co.uk

Do you want to access your Personal Information?

You can unsubscribe from our mailing list at any time by clicking subscribe at the bottom of your emails from us. Instead, if you want to view/change/delete the information we may have on you then please do get in touch with us at info@bournemouthscene.co.uk.

Your Consent

By using our web site, you consent to the collection and use of the information you provide to us as outlined in this Privacy Policy. We may change this Privacy Policy from time to time and without notice, so make sure you check back occasionally. If we change our Privacy Policy, we will publish those changes on this page. If you have any questions or concerns about our collection, use or disclosure of your personal information, please get in touch – info@bournemouthscene.co.uk
